Call to Worship: Miriam Zech

One: I looked over Jordan, that river we all will eventually cross...

All: O Lord, what a vision.

One: I could see the saints singing and dancing.
I saw grandpa fishing in the Crystal Sea,
I heard grandma humming in the kitchen...

All: O Lord, what a vision.

One: There were countless others, all faithful disciples,
gathered worshipping...
That old man who sang solos in the choir,
That young man whose life was cut short in that accident...

All: O Lord what a vision.

One: But the most amazing thing I saw as I looked over Jordan...

All: Yes? Yes?

One: Was the man standing in the shallows, smiling,
saying

All: "Welcome home."

Psalm 26

Vindicate me, O LORD,
for I have walked in my integrity,
and I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.
Prove me, O LORD, and try me;
test my heart and mind.
For your steadfast love is before my eyes,
and I walk in faithfulness to you.

I do not sit with the worthless,
nor do I consort with hypocrites;
I hate the company of evildoers,
and will not sit with the wicked.

I wash my hands in innocence,
and go around your altar, O LORD,
singing aloud a song of thanksgiving,
and telling all your wondrous deeds.

O LORD, I love the house in which you dwell,
and the place where your glory abides.
Do not sweep me away with sinners,
nor my life with the bloodthirsty,
those in whose hands are evil devices,
and whose right hands are full of bribes.

But as for me, I walk in my integrity;
redeem me, and be gracious to me.
My foot stands on level ground;
in the great congregation I will bless the LORD.
